1. The Buero fuer Wirtschaftsfragen (Office for Economic Questions) moved from 1-4 Schnellerstrasse, Berlin-Nieder-Schoeneweide, to 37-43 Glinke Strasse in Berlin.<sup>1</sup> The offices of the government construction agency are located in the same building.

2. On 10 October 1952, the construction agency transmitted 10 million eastmarks to the SCC in Karlshorst. The money was to be used for research and development conducted by the project in Pirna. [redacted]

the financial affairs of the project in Pirna are controlled by the SCC in Karlshorst. The construction agency was merely to furnish the required funds without learning any details of the planning or expenditures. The construction agency was to furnish 28 million eastmarks of the 1952 financial requirements for the project in Pirna. The appropriation for the fourth quarter of 1952 amounted to 4.6 million eastmarks.<sup>2</sup>

1. Comment. The Office for Economic Questions was previously reported.
